Taxation of Digital Products – Is It Always a Royalty?

27 August 2021, Friday

3:00 pm – 4:00 pm

The use of software and other digital products is a sine qua non for operating any enterprise in this digital age. Noting the sharp growth in this area, tax authorities are increasingly scrutinising payments to non-residents for use of software and digital products. The recent landmark decision by the Indian Supreme Court in Engineering Analysis Centre of Excellence underscores the critical importance of getting the analysis right.

Join us for this webinar as our speakers share their insights on this salient topic.
