

ASEAN INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY ASSOCIATION
(ASEAN IPA)

Date January 18th, 2022
Time 4:00pm - 5:10pm
MYT Malaysian Time (CET +0600)

Register Now

Source: MahmurMarganti / Pixabay

Traditional Knowledge and Traditional Cultural Expressions in the ASEAN Region

Karen Abraham
Shearn Delamore &
Co, Malaysia

Wend Wendland
Head, Traditional Knowledge Division,
WIPO

Lynell Tuffrey Huria
Kahui Legal
New Zealand

Professor Dr Lim
Heng Gee
Universiti Teknologi
Mara

Valeriano Del Rosario
VeraLaw,
Philippines

Nguyen Nguyet Dzung
Vision & Associates
Vietnam

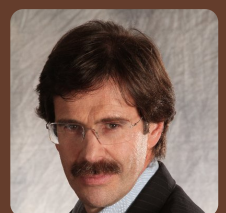

Dino Santaniello
Tilleke & Gibbins,
Laos

Dwi Anita Daruherdani
Daruherdani Attorneys,
Indonesia

San Chaithiraphant
Tilleke & Gibbins,
Thailand

Martin Michaus
Chair, AIPPI GR/TK
Standing Committee

Do existing infrastructures on Traditional Knowledge (TK) and Traditional Cultural Expressions (TCE) provide adequate protection for Indigenous Communities? Are Intellectual Property Laws sufficient to protect Traditional Knowledge and Traditional Cultural Expressions?

Don't miss this opportunity to hear from leading Intellectual Property professionals from ASEAN IPA, WIPO and AIPPI!

Programme

January 18th, 2022, MYT Malaysian Time (CET +0600)

4:00pm - 4:05pm

Introduction and TK TCE Framework

by Karen Abraham

4:05pm - 4:15pm

Initiatives by the World Intellectual Property Organization

by Wend Wendland

4:15pm - 4:23pm

Protection of TK TCE in Malaysia

by Dr Lim Heng Gee

4:23pm - 4:33pm

Existing infrastructures for the protection of TK TCE in Philippines

by Valeriano Del Rosario

4:33pm - 5.10pm

Panel Discussion

with Nguyen Nguyet Dzung (Vietnam), Dino Santaniello (Laos & Cambodia), Dwi Anita Daruherdani (Indonesia), Lim Heng Gee (Malaysia), Valeriano Del Rosario (Phillipines), San Chaithiraphant (Thailand), Lynell Tuffery Huria, Martin Michaus

ASEAN INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY ASSOCIATION
(ASEAN IPA)

Karen Abraham

Karen Abraham is the Head of the Intellectual Property department of Messrs Shearn Delamore & Co. Her practice covers all aspects of Intellectual Property, Technology, Media & Telecommunications, Data Protection and Competition Law. She has more than 30 years of litigation experience in Intellectual Property matters, appearing in the Apex Courts in Malaysia. Abraham was the first Malaysian to sit on the Bureau of AIPPI as assistant Secretary General and was the first Malaysian woman on the Board of the INTA. She also sits as Council member of ASEAN IP Association (AIPA) and in 2021, she was appointed as the Assistant Secretary General the Asia Pacific Regional Forum Liaison Officer of IBA's Intellectual Property and Entertainment Law Committee. Abraham is the co chair of the TK/TCE committee of AIPPI and member of the anticounterfeiting committee of both INTA and Marques. Abraham is a Panellist on the Domain Name Dispute panel of the Asian International Arbitration Centre (AIAC) and a Panel member of the Malaysian Mediation Centre. She is also serves the IP Committee and the Disciplinary Board of the Malaysian Bar Council. Her enforcement practice focuses on crafting anti-piracy and anti-counterfeiting programmes for leading companies in the global market, as well as crafting innovative strategies and brand management schemes for global and local IP brands.

Wend Wendland

Wend Wendland has some 30 years' experience in intellectual property, in both the private and public sectors. He practiced law as a partner of a leading South African law firm, Webber Wentzel, from 1987 to 1997, before joining the World Intellectual Property Organization in Geneva, Switzerland, where he became a Director in 2008. For the last many years, he has devoted himself to multilateral norm-setting and capacity-building at the interface between intellectual property and global issues such as biodiversity, food and agriculture, cultural heritage and human rights. Mr. Wendland is passionate about economic, social and cultural development in developing and least-developed countries. In his work, he travels widely and is familiar with the conditions in many countries in all regions. He maintains a wide network of senior-level contacts within government departments, diplomatic missions, regional organizations, industry, civil society and academia. Mr. Wendland is also an Adjunct Professor, Faculty of Law, University of Cape Town, South Africa. He publishes extensively and is a frequent speaker at conferences. He was born in Cape Town and resides in Geneva, Switzerland.

Lim Heng Gee

Dr LIM HENG GEE is a Professor of Law at the Faculty of Law, Universiti Teknologi MARA, Shah Alam, Malaysia. Dr Lim specialises in Intellectual Property law and has taught the subject in various universities both in Malaysia and in the United Kingdom. He has published several articles relating to Intellectual Property laws in academic journals, both in Malaysia and overseas, as well as presented papers at various Intellectual Property conferences and seminars. He has also contributed chapters to books on various aspects of intellectual property law. Besides his academic duties, Dr Lim is a resource person at the Intellectual Property Training Centre, Malaysia. He also serves as a member of various Advisory Committees on Intellectual Property Laws in the Intellectual Property Division of the Ministry of Domestic Trade and Consumer Affairs (now the Intellectual Property Corporation of Malaysia), advising on various amendments to the intellectual property laws. Dr Lim was invited as a Malaysian technical expert to deliberate at the three WIPO Intergovernmental Committee Intersessional Working Groups on Intellectual Property and Genetic Resources, Traditional Knowledge and Folklore" in 2010 and 2011. He also represented Malaysia at the Second Like-Minded Countries Meeting on an International Legal Instrument(s) for the Protection of Genetic resources, Traditional Knowledge and Folklore in Bali, Indonesia in June 2011.

Valeriano Del Rosario

Valeriano del Rosario is a Philippines based lawyer who has long experience is cross border matters. He obtained his LLM from the University of Wales Institute of Science and Technology in 1983. He law career in London at Sinclair Roche and Temperley. He returned to the Philippines in 1987 and joined the law firm which his father established soon after the War in 1949. His father's firm was organized as V.E. del Rosario & Associates, and the firm was known by the initials VERA. Valeriano is the managing partner of VeraLaw.

Nguyen Nguyet Dzung

As a qualified Patent Attorney, Mrs. Dzung specializes in various aspects of international and Vietnamese intellectual property laws, including patent laws, especially in patent drafting, patent prosecution, patent invalidation/cancellation, opposition, appeal, maintenance, commercialization, prior art search, freedom-to-operate search, providing legal opinions on infringement possibility, and other patent-related matters especially in pharmacology, life science, chemistry, chemical engineering, biotechnology, and biochemistry.

Mrs. Dzung has directly and indirectly involved in helping foreign clients such as Samsung, F. Hoffmann-La Roche, Gilead, Merck & Co., Amgen, Allergan, Abbott, LG Households & Healthcare, Albermale Corporation, Sun Pharmaceutical Industries, Lexicon Pharmaceuticals, H. Lundbeck, Vestergaard Frandsen SA, etc.

During the year of 2018, under Mrs. Dzung's management, Intellectual Property Practice of Vision & Associates has retained and developed its clientele consisted of blue-chip players in industries, and has obtained an intensively-increasing turnover resulting from the large number of applications for patents, trademarks, designs, confirming its first-tier position in IP prosecution and its expanding stand in IPR enforcement; and Mrs. Dzung was regarded as Recommended Individual by IAM Patent 1000.

Dwi Anita Daruherani

Dwi Anita Daruherdani specialises in Dispute Resolution and Intellectual Property. She is registered as an Intellectual Property Consultant at the Directorate General of Intellectual Property, Ministry of Law and Human Rights of the Republic of Indonesia. She has also been admitted to practice before courts within the Indonesia jurisdiction since 1994. Dwi runs her own law firm, Daruherdani Attorneys (formerly Daruherdani & Partners), which was established in September 2007. Daruherdani Attorneys render legal services in relation to Intellectual Property matters, including protection, prosecution, litigation, enforcement and commercial. The expertise of the firm also extends to corporate commercial matters, such as company establishment, company restructuring, new business penetration in Indonesia, commercial agreements and business transactions, employment and immigration issues, etc. Dwi is active in various Intellectual Property association in Indonesia and across the South East Asia region. She is the Country Head for the Indonesian Group at the ASEAN Intellectual Property Association, the Vice Chairperson of Intellectual Property Rights Arbitration and Mediation Center (Badan Arbitrase dan Mediasi Hak Kekayaan Intelektual), the Vice President of the Indonesian Intellectual Property Society (IIPS), Board Member of Indonesia Hong Kong Business Association and Honorary Advisor for the Hong Kong Business IP Asia Forum.

Dino Santaniello

Dino Santaniello is the head of Tilleke & Gibbins' office in Laos. He has broad experience across many fields of law, including patents and trademarks, privacy and data protection, corporate establishment, licensing, and commercial transactions. Dino advises both domestic and international companies on legal matters in Laos and Thailand, and based on the strengths of his client service and legal expertise, is recognized as leading lawyer in Laos by Asialaw Leading Lawyers, Chambers Asia-Pacific, IFLR 1000, and The Legal 500 Asia Pacific.

San Chaithiraphant

San Chaithiraphant is an associate in Tilleke & Gibbins' IP group specializing in patents, technology transfer, IP commercialization, and regulatory affairs. In addition, he advises clients on specialized and emerging regulations in Thailand such as plant variety protection, traditional medicines, and cannabis and hemp. He is a licensed lawyer in Thailand with advanced degrees in engineering and chemical engineering.

Lynell Tuffrey Huria

Lynell was the first Māori Patent Attorney and is recognised as a leading expert on indigenous intellectual property rights, Māori intellectual property and trade mark protection.

Over the last 30 years, Lynell has worked for a large intellectual property specialist firm, advising a wide variety of clients including whanau, hapū, and iwi, sole traders, companies, and multi-national corporations.

Lynell is keen to continue to assist Māori to navigate the intellectual property system and develop new and innovative ways to protect our cultural heritage.

Martin Michaus

Chair of the AIPPI Standing Committee IP and GR TK. Past President of the Mexican Group of the AIPPI and of ASIPI, Partner of the law firm, Basham, Ringe y Correa, S.C., Panel member of the Arbitration and Mediation Center of the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO), PhD candidate at Universidad Panamericana in Mexico, obtained a Master's Degree in Comparative Law from the University of Illinois and a law degree from Universidad Iberoamericana, Member of the International Association for Intellectual Property Teaching and Research (ATRIP), Adjunct Professor on Intellectual Property in the Master's Degree and Law Course on Industrial and Intellectual Property at Universidad Panamericana in Mexico, Member of the International Academic Council of ISDE in Madrid, Spain. Lecturer of the Master's Course of the Industrial, Intellectual, Competence and New Technologies Matters.