Q1: What is this programme and how does it work?

As part of KPUM's #StayAtHome initiative to empower law students from the comfort of their homes, our latest collaboration, #StayAtHome with Shearn Delamore & Co., will consist of a series of webinars over the span of two weeks.

Q2: Who are the parties involved?

This collaboration is between KPUM and Shearn Delamore & Co. in conjunction with KPUM's 30 Days of Summer Internship Program, Cohort 2020. Our supporting partners include: University of Malaya Law Society, Advance Tertiary College, and Brickfields Asia College.

Q3: Who should be watching?

Malaysian law students undertaking qualifying law programmes or pathways (including CLP or BPTC students) and prospective pupils.

Q4: Where will the sessions be held?

The webinars will be held on Zoom for Shearn Delamore & Co. interns and pupils only. However, the webinars will also be livestreamed onto KPUM's Facebook page, where viewers from the general public will be able to submit questions in the comments section.

Q5: How can I know more about each webinar?

KPUM will release further details of each webinar at least a day prior to the date of the webinar. Stay tuned and please follow our social media platforms for more updates: Instagram, Facebook, Twitter and LinkedIn!
